

You Gotta Fight

by Andrea Rodriguez

Put your hands up Sis.
You gotta fight. Fight for yourself.
You gonna give up the ground you gained?
You gotta fight through this pain.

It's not easy, this holy and hard walk
You know that it's not all talk
You gotta fight. Fight for yourself
Do all you can to stand, then keep standing

Who do you think you are?
Insignificant? Unseen? Unworthy?
No Sis, you are just the opposite.
You're not gonna forfeit

You are His Image Bearer,
Daughter of the Most High
Redeemed
Victorious
Loved
You are who He died for

Yes, I know you're tired
Yes, I know you're disappointed
Yes, I know you're hurt
Yes, I know you're broken
Yes, I know you're misunderstood
But you gotta fight.

It's not over yet
You are needed
You are wanted
So take yourself off the floor
Wipe away those tears
Yes, put your hands up
You gotta fight
